

Andalus International School of Qur'an & AI — Investor S

Updated: 2025-11-08

Vision

- Qur'an-centered formation using al-Qurtubi's tafsir, no homework, daily PE/martial
- AI-first STEM in English (MD ELA + MA Math/STE/DLCS).
- International-school facilities along the Casa-Kenitra-Tangier corridor.

Why Now

- Strong demand for rigorous STEM with an authentic Islamic core.
- Affordable tuition target ($2,000/year) to increase access; partners bridge facility/l
- Clear standards alignment and accreditation-friendly structure (NEASC-compatible

Program Highlights

- Full hifz path via saba-manazil review; humanities embedded through tafsir.
- K-5 foundations; middle-school data/physical computing; HS pathways in ML/data/
- English support across grades for STEM comprehension; Arabic-from-zero placeme

Operations Snapshot

- Staffing: 1 teacher + 1 aide per 30 students (equivalent attention to 15:1).
- School day: Drop-off 8:30–9:00; classes 9:00; built-in lunch and short breaks.
- Facilities emphasize natural light, low-toxin materials, and energy efficiency.

Financial Overview (base plan)

- Tuition: 2,000 per student; registration 100; materials included Y1.
- P&L modeled for AAC-like facilities; fundraising target covers the operating gap an
- See FiveYear\_PnL\_AAC\_like\_\$2000tuition\_v4.pdf and the Excel workbook for details

Compliance & Accreditation

- Curriculum benchmarked to Massachusetts STE 2016, Math 2017, DLCS 2016.
- English benchmarks: Maryland MCCR ELA, K–12.
- NEASC-friendly architecture; MENPS-compatible.

Contact

- Prospective partners and families: request the info packet and site visit schedule.