

NEASC Alignment — One Pager (Program & Standards)

Updated: 2025-11-08

Model Summary

- Andalus International School of Qur'an & AI integrates tafsir-centered humanities (
- No homework; practice in school. Daily PE/martial arts. Arabic-from-zero supported
- English instruction supports STEM comprehension throughout K-12.

Benchmarks Used

- Massachusetts STE (2016), Mathematics (2017), and Digital Literacy & Computer S
- Maryland College & Career Ready (MCCR) ELA for K-12 English language arts.
- Local requirements referenced for compliance; documentation crosswalk available

Program-to-Standard Crosswalk (high level)

- Science & Engineering: lab investigations, data collection, and design cycles mapped across K-12.
- Mathematics: conceptual progressions and modeling aligned to MA 2017 framework.
- DLCS/CS: coding, data literacy, and computing systems mapped across K-12.
- ELA: reading/writing/speaking benchmarks (MCCR) embedded into STEM and tafsir text standards.
- Humanities: comparative fiqh/ahkam, seerah, hadith, and balagha via tafsir text standards.

Assessment & Accreditation Readiness

- Common assessments and capstones; evidence portfolios per grade band.
- Quality assurance: curriculum maps, pacing, and bell schedules maintained and reviewed annually.
- Friendly to NEASC/MENPS peer review processes.

Facilities & Safety (summary)

- Natural light and healthy-materials emphasis; energy efficiency targets.
- Daily PE/martial arts with appropriate supervision and safety protocols.